This Ohio State Library has 30,000 volumes.
It is said that Mr. Thurman will not allow his name to be used in connection with the Ohio Senatorship.

The tax on dogs in Kentucky last year amounted to $507.87. One half of the state, at least, paid no tax at all.

There was a break in wheat, corn and pork in Chicago. Prices are expected to advance again before the holidays.

Six U. S. Senators and thirty-one U. S. Representatives are natives of Ohio. No other State can make such a showing.

The latest turn in the Ohio Senatorial contest is a reported move on the part of Pendleton and Thurman to unite their forces.

At a meeting held in Falmouth, it was resolved to memorialize Congress for an appropriation for the improvement of the Licking River.

Emergency Cases are to be formed and money raised to drive the English out of Ireland. One of these clubs has already been organized in New York.

The oldest Masonic lodge in the West is Lexington Lodge No. 1. Its original charter was obtained from the Grand Lodge of Virginia, and is dated November 17, 1738.

At least 1,000 of the 2,000 bills offered to Congress this session have not the ghost of a chance to become laws. What we need most is the enforcement of the laws we now have.

The members of the Legislature who are gathering in Frankfort are confronted at every turn by place-hunters. The election of a U. S. Senator will probably occur on January 8.

The race for speakership of the Kentucky House seems to be between J. H. Mulligan, of Lexington; C. C. Owens, of Scott; Crowell Adair, of Union and Charles Offutt, of Bourbon.

The Senatorial contest in Kentucky is thus far carried on by the present incumbent, Cerrito G. Williams, and Congress in Blackburn. They are both claiming to have as many votes pledged as there are Legislators.

The small grain crop is reported to be quite forward. The frost in it has done some damage, and more is apprehended in the spring, at which time the eggs hatch more numerous. Most of the damage is confined to wheat.

Col. C. E. Bowman, Commissioner of Agriculture at Frankfort, announces that he has the following Virginia and North Carolina tobacco seeds for distribution: Nestor, Gold Leaf, Molley Pior, Hlyro, Sweet Orinoco, Yellow Pryor, Big Orinoco and North Carolina Gold.

At the Anchorage Asylum there are 533 inmates, where care for the year cost the State $121,102.57; at the Western Asylum, at Hopkinsville, there are 480 inmates, which cost the State $45,059.93; and at the Eastern Asylum, at Lexington, there are 613 inmates, at an annual cost to the State of $119,000.34.

The building associations of Cincinnati have placed $2,500,000 in mortgages on record during the year. Thirty-six new associations were organized. It is estimated that these associations have given the notable impulse to building operations which has been remarked during the last two or three years.

The sunset glow which has been so brilliant for the past few weeks is leaving a peculiar effect upon the negroes of Texas. They are fully convinced that these signs show that the world is coming to an end. As a result they are crowding into their churches every night, and their prayers, songs and shouts are louder and more numerous than ever before.

Gen. Howard wants the deserting soldier in time of peace branded with the letter D, which suggests to the New York World, that before the deserters from the army are branded with a "D," that the big thieves "who rob the government, break laws, bribe legislators, and buy judges, who use their official positions to plunder the people through frauds in savings banks and insurance offices, who steal the money of widows and orphans entrusted to their care, and who sing psalms with a powerful mad twang on Sunday, in order to divert sympathy from their abstraction of bank funds on other days of the week," be branded with a big "T." The suggestion is a good one, and might be profitably carried out.

SOME persons who wish to see the hog installed permanently in Mayville are using the argument that, in the event of its exclusion from town, it will cost a large sum every year to remove the garbage it is alleged the hog now takes away. This kind of talk is mere nonsense. In the first place the hog is of no use whatever as a scavenger. Whatever garbage it consumes in one place is deposited in a filthier form in another, and limit the time on the sidewalks, in the houses or anywhere its protected highness pleases. In the second place it will not cost the city a single penny to remove the garbage, for an offer has already been made by a responsible citizen, not only to take it away at his own expense but to pay a certain sum of money for the privilege. This offer is made in good faith, and we have the best reasons for believing that any contract made by the city with this citizen will be faithfully carried out on his part. It may be accepted as a fact, therefore, that the removal of garbage will cost the city nothing.

The Monumental Fair at Ripley has thus far been a great success. The attendance has increased from the start, and on Saturday evening more than 1,100 persons were present. Donations have been coming in from every direction, and it is expected that through the generosity of the public at least $4,000 will be realized. The fair will continue all this week, and probably through the next. On Saturday, January 5th, it will be open day and night, and on that day it will be visited by the tobacco dealers of Cincinnati, who will award the premiums offered for the best tobacco. The steamer Morning Mail on the trip down will lay over at the Ripley wharf until eleven o'clock that night for the accommodation of visitors.

Advice to Brides.
Love is blind, but love is not deaf. So don't snore. Do not be in a hurry to buy all the new fancies you see. A richly dressed woman runs the risk of being mistaken for a servant girl. Do not threaten to go home to your mother oftener than five times a week. As you don't go to her home eventually begin to doubt your sincerity. Do not get angry when your husband first asks you to darn his stockings. Smile sweetly and suggest that it would be cheaper to buy new ones. Have a house with a furnace in it, and keep both it and the range going over night. That will improve your chances of happiness 600 per cent. Many women make a practice of protesting against the word "obey" in the marriage service after the marriage has taken place. This is a mistake. Do not protest against it. Quietly ignore it. If you have a job to do always keep him around, and then when your husband relaxes his attentions fly to the dog for comfort, laughing and kissing him right before your husband. If he gets mad and kicks the dog, it will be a sure sign that he still loves you.

A BATCH OF CLEANINGS.
Of Interest and Use to Everybody.
Loosen screws and nuts by pouring on the thread a little kerosene.
Prevent the formation of a crust in tea-kettles by keeping in them an oyster shell.
Make modeling clay moist and plastic for a great length of time by kneading it with glycerine instead of water.
Scour knives with brick dust or powder by using instead of rag and water, a potato cut smooth at the end.
Prevent weeds from growing on gravel walks by sprinkling them well with a solution of two pounds of blue vitriol in six gallons of water.
Restore yellow flannels to white by soaking them in a solution of soap suds and ammonia water. Wash the flannels afterward in clear water.
Prevent ivory knife handles from cracking while washing by soaking the blades in a pitcher of water, instead of laying them down in the pane.
Keep iron farming implements from rusting during the winter by rubbing them over with kerosene. Treat stoves the same way during the summer.
Make lead-pencil writing indelible by laying the written sheet face upwards in a shallow dish and wash with skimmed milk; dry carefully. Pencil writing may be made partially indelible by moistening it with saliva or even by breathing slowly upon it.
Clinkers may be loosened from fire-bricks by throwing into the fire-bricks when very hot, two or three quarts of oyster or mussel shells, or a much less quantity of small, allowing the fire to go out and then cleave off the clinkers.
To make wood indestructible from rot or fire, immerse it in a saturated solution of borax, heat it in a boiling pot, let the wood remain in the solution twelve hours; take out, dry, immerse again in a weaker solution three hours and dry.

Stole the Funds.
CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—Patrick Holden, treasurer of the Iron Molders Union No. 23, was arrested on warrant charging him with embezzlement. It is said that on December 7 Holden had in his possession $500 funds belonging to the Union, and that he had fraudulently converted it to his own use. The case was continued.

Greenback Convention.
INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 31.—The Chairman of the State Central Committee of the National Labor Greenback party of Indiana has issued a call for a State Convention, to be held in this city on February 2nd, for the purpose of nominating a full complement of candidates for State offices.

Senatorial Contest.
FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 31.—About 100 of the 138 Senators and Representatives accredited to the Kentucky Legislature are already in the city, and log-rolling is going on as vigorously as the logs themselves could roll down a steep hill. The question of the Senate takes precedence, even of the matter of the organization of the House, and the friends of the various candidates for Senator are individually patting in their best ticks for their favorite men.

The leading men in the Senatorial race are the present incumbent, General John R. Williams, and Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn, although various other gentlemen are mentioned in connection with the office, to wit: Governor J. Proctor Knott, Hon. James A. McKenzie, Hon. W. C. C. Breckinridge, Hon. Isaac Caldwell, Hon. Thomas A. Jones, Mr. John S. Cain, and several others of more or less obscurity in Kentucky politics. It is generally conceded here that Williams, commonly known as "Old Cerro Gordo," has the most strength.

New York Hop Growers.
ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 31.—The hop growers of the State have united in an effort to secure the enactment of a law by the Legislature requiring the brewers and dealers to brand each and every bottle of beer, ale, and porter with the articles from which such ale, beer, or porter is made, together with the amount of the same, under a heavy penalty. They have also fixed the tare on hops grown after 1893 at three and a half pounds per bush. It is stipulated that the average weight of bales shall be 185 pounds, to be put up on more than twenty-six ounces to the yard, and heavier packing or other outside matter to be deducted from the weight of the bales.

The Egyptian War.
CAIRO, Dec. 31.—While the Egyptian troops, under Zebek Pasha, were advancing from Suakin toward Berber they entered a small town called Geseir, which was garrisoned by a force of Bashi-Bazouks, of the Egyptian army. During their halt at this place the Bedouins of Zebek Pasha's command attacked the Bashi-Bazouks and a severe fight ensued, resulting in a terrible defeat of the mutinous Bedouins. Hussein Pasha, who is in command, has taken 3,000 Bedouins from Korosko and has left his son at that point to continue the recruiting and follow the main force. It is expected that the latter will be able to raise 1,000 more men.

Child's Darts Down in Georgia.
LEXINGTON, Ga., Dec. 31.—The unsavory marriage of Joseph A. Stewart, of Jackson County, with his niece, Miss Hassel Stewart, has created some scandal. The bride is the daughter of G. W. Stewart, a well-to-do Lexingtonian and brother of the groom. The father is very indignant and is in hot pursuit with a warrant for the arrest of the transient lovers. This is a second time such a marriage has taken place here. Thirty years ago Mr. Farmer married his own son's daughter, the union was legalized by a special act of the Legislature.

A Horrible Death.
WALTHAM, Mass., Dec. 31.—Daniel Jennings, aged thirty, an employee at the Boston Manufacturing Company's blacksmith shop, was killed Saturday afternoon, while walking past a vat, the pressure blow of the cover, striking Jennings and knocking him down, while the escaping liquid flooded his body. In removing his clothes the skin peeled off and his body was found to be the color of the dye. Jennings died in great agony. He was married only two months ago.

A German Forger Caught.
CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 31.—Hermina Koerstein, ex-Secretary to Max Orlovsky, one of the Government Chiefs of the Russian railroad system, had been arrested here at the instance of the Prussian Vice Consul on the charge of forging the signature of the President of the Russian Empire in broad management to papers by which he obtained five thousand marks, with which he fled to this country. Examination was postponed.

He Played Cards.
CINCINNATI, Dec. 31.—A detective arrived here having in charge J. D. Suite, former bookkeeper and cashier for the Western Publishing House, who was arrested in Knoxville, Tenn., whither he had fled, for the embezzlement of about $5,000 from his former employers. He had the full confidence of the firm, and as usual became too infatuated with cards and stole his employer's money. Suite acknowledged that he had embezzled from $3,000 to $5,000.

Chicago, Dec. 31.—A dispatch from San Francisco says that a ceremony representing the funeral of O'Donnell, who was hanged in London, took place Sunday afternoon. Efforts were made to make it a grand demonstration. The Board of Supervisors and prominent Irish organizations declined to take part, and it resulted in a dismal failure. Only about 300 were in the procession.

Becher's Presentiment.
NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Becher said yesterday before his sermon, speaking of the observance of New Year's Day, that wine has ceased to be a necessary part of hospitality. Public sentiment had undergone a great change on the subject. In the course of the sermon Becher said he felt a premonition that he would not be with his people a year hence.

Iron Trunk Lines.
CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—The final meeting of the Iowa Trunk Line Association opened Monday morning. No programme of business is arranged, but the old pool will be assigned to its last resting place without undue ceremony. The business was largely of a routine nature, consisting of closing up old association affairs.

A Fatal Quarrel.
CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—Mary Rodgers, an inmate of a barge was shot and fatally injured Sunday night by her colored lover, Elmer Skosen, in a quarrel. Skosen while trying to escape, fell in the street broke his leg and was captured.

Revolutionary Socialists.
CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—The Revolutionary Socialist organization celebrated the feast of Sylvester, the patron saint of millers, with a mass meeting and abundant display of red flags.

Doubles the Honor.
LONDON, Dec. 31.—In a letter to the press, Charles Alexander denies the authorship of the Orange circular published Saturday last over his name, advising the enrolment of an Orange volunteer force of militia.

Shall We Let the Child Die?

A hard-hearted political economist, looking at a pale and puny child feebly gasping as it lies upon a pillow, says that the child might as well die. It is so weak and poor that its life will never be worth much anyhow. There are already a good many people in the world who are of not much account anyhow. And what's the use of adding to their number another weakling, who has but slender chance of ever amounting to anything?

Now ask that child's mother what she thinks about letting the child die. About this time the hard political economist had better get out of the way. "Let my child die! Not No! As long as there is a remedy to be found that will save that child, the child shall not die! I'll spend my last dollar to save the child!" Well, try a bottle of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS on that child. See the poor little fellow pick up strength. He revives. He will live. Hosts of other children have been brought almost from death to healthy life by Brown's Iron Bitters. Your druggist sells it.
